THIRD WORLD INFORMATION DAY EXHIBITION

On the occasion of the Third World Information Day that took place in about 100 towns in Germany on 12 September, ICM, together with other institutions acting in the field of cooperation with developing countries, made a public presentation of its activities.

The inauguration and main event took place in Bonn with the participation of many well-known personalities, and ICM had the opportunity to explain its activities to the German Secretary of State and the Mayor of Bonn.

The exhibition also provided a welcome opportunity to make contact with the general public and brief visitors to the ICM tent on the Organization's role.
